The Gospel of Luke

I. The Crucified Jesus as the Great Prophet who Divides

Psalm 22:1-8 My God, my God, why have You forsaken me? Far from my deliverance are the words of my groaning.

O my God, I cry by day, but You do not answer; And by night, but I have no rest. Yet You are holy, O You who are enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

In You our fathers trusted; They trusted and You delivered them.

To You they cried out and were delivered; In You they trusted and were not disappointed.

But I am a worm and not a man, A reproach of men and despised by the people.

*All who see me sneer at me; They separate with the lip, they wag the head, saying,
“Commit yourself to the LORD; let Him deliver him; Let Him rescue him, because He delights in him.”*

II. The Crucified Jesus as Willing Savior

Psalm 22:11-18 Be not far from me, for trouble is near; For there is none to help. Many bulls have surrounded me; Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me.

*They open wide their mouth at me, As a ravening and a roaring lion.
I am poured out like water, And all my bones are out of joint; My heart is like wax; It is melted within me.*

*My strength is dried up like a potsherd, And my tongue cleaves to my jaws;
And You lay me in the dust of death.*

*For dogs have surrounded me; A band of evildoers has encompassed me;
They pierced my hands and my feet.*

*I can count all my bones. They look, they stare at me;
They divide my garments among them, And for my clothing they cast lots.*
