Sennacherib

“As to Hezekiah, the Jew, he did not submit to my yoke, I laid siege to 46 of his strong cities, walled forts and to the countless small villages in their vicinity and conquered them by means of well-stamped earth ramps and battering rams brought near to the walls combined with attack by foot soldiers, using mines, breeches, as well as sapper work. I drove out of them 200,150 people young and old, male and female, horses, mules, donkeys, camels, big and small cattle beyond counting, and considered them booty. Himself I made a prisoner in Jerusalem, his royal residence, like a bird in a cage. I surrounded him with earthwork in order to molest those who were leaving his city’s gate. His towns which I plundered, I took away from his country and gave them over to Mittini, King of Ashdod, Padi, King of Ekron, and to Sillibel, King of Gaza. Thus I reduced his country, but I still increased the tribute.”
